

Launching your Global Career Webinar Series 2019

Launching your International Career

Global CVs and personal branding

Monday 4th March 17:00-18:00

Sign up here!

Join Mark Blaber and Laura Swallow from the University of Northampton in this webinar for non-UK students from the Midlands International Group of Universities:

- Explore ideas and information on how to brand and sell yourself through your CV.
- Highlight to employers the qualities you have as a global graduate
- How to develop specific, relevant content to meet employer demands and expectations

The organiser's privacy policy can be found here.

Making the most of your time at university

Wednesday 6th March 13:00-14:00

Sign up here!

Join Lindsay Southall from Birmingham City University in this webinar for international students from the Midlands International Group of universities on how you can make the most of your time at your UK university including:

- Explore opportunities on campus
- Find out about skill development
- Understand how to get UK work experience
- Discover how you can prepare for the future

The organiser's privacy policy can be found here.

Seeking Employment in the UK

Post-study working visas for the UK

Tuesday 12th March 17:00-18:00

Sign up here!

If you want to work in the UK during or after your studies then it is essential that you attend this webinar in order to have a thorough understanding of what your current Tier 4 visa status allows you to do, the visas which will allow you to remain in the UK after your studies to work and the requirements which you or your potential employer will need to satisfy. Specifically, at the end of this webinar you will have a good understanding of Tier 2, Tier 5 and Tier 4 of the Points Based System visas in addition to the Sole Representative visa.

The webinar will be presented by Kirin Abbas, Legal Services Director at the niche immigration firm Paragon Law and is a collaboration with the University of Leicester and the Midlands International Group.

The organiser's privacy policy can be found here.

Launching your Global Career Webinar Series 2019

Tier 5 visas and alternative options

Wednesday 13th March 17:00-18:00

Sign up link: TBC

TBC

Working as an entrepreneur in the UK after study – Tier 1 Graduate Entrepreneur visas

Thursday 14th March 17:00-18:00

Sign up here!

Are you an International Student interested in setting up your own business in the UK after your study? Do you want more information about the visa options for this, and how to apply? This webinar will be facilitated by Gemma Zebedee, Senior International Student Adviser (Policy) at Aston University. We aim to have one or more international graduate entrepreneurs supporting the input.

Please note: this session will provide information not individual advice on personal circumstances.

The organiser's privacy policy can be found here.

Becoming a Global Professional

International business etiquette: Fitting in and getting on

Wednesday 20th March 12:00-13:00

Sign up here!

Ellen O'Brien from the University of Birmingham will be delivering this webinar exploring fitting in and getting on with your colleagues in the global workplace, helping you gain a better understanding of expected behaviour at work. She will explore cultural differences that shape professional behaviour enabling you to consider your own culture in relation to this and to understand more about working practices around the world.

The organiser's privacy policy can be found here.

Get the edge in your graduate job market back home

Thursday 21st March 13:00-14:00

Sign up here!

Get the edge in your graduate job market back home - and across the globe! Join David Gee, creator of GradLink, in this webinar which will give you advice and tips on how to 'brand' and sell your UK-education internationally. Plus it will also provide advice for all stages of the job search process, from networking effectively on LinkedIn, through to interview. GradLink is the award-winning careers site for international students studying in the UK.

David Gee will provide feedback from the employers he has worked with across the world (including China, South-East Asia, South Asia, the Gulf, North America and Africa) on what they look for in graduates, and in particular, graduate returners from the UK.

The organiser's privacy policy can be found here.

Launching your Global Career Webinar Series 2019

Preparing for Success

Networking and LinkedIn for international students

Tuesday 26th March 17:00-18:00

Sign up here!

Being connected is essential to success as a global graduate. But how do you achieve this?

LinkedIn is the essential online tool for access to professionals at all levels. It gives you resources and information to support career research and build your networks as a student in the UK, in your home country and globally.

This webinar, run by Jim Heritage and Iwan Griffiths from Aston University, will help you:

- Learning more about the key components of LinkedIn and developing your professional online profile
- Getting some 'good practice' tips for connecting with people and growing your networking as an International Student
- Working out the next steps in using LinkedIn to research employers, find jobs and share your knowledge and expertise

The organiser's privacy policy can be found here.

Opportunities within the creative sector - Asia

Wednesday 27th March 12:00-13:00

Sign up here!

Join Kathryn Doerr from Nottingham Trent University in this webinar for non-UK students from the Midlands International Group of Universities.

- Develop an understanding of visual communications opportunities in China
- Hear from Professor Fa Shen, graphic design lecturer & Vice Dean at Ningbo University in Zhejiang province
- Gain advice on networking and approaches to working in creative industries in China

The organiser's privacy policy can be found here.

Preparing for interviews

Thursday 28th March 17:00-18:00

Sign up here!

Join Chris Steventon (Coventry University) in considering the needs of global recruiters and what they consider in quality candidates.

- Demonstrating your skills through answers
- Making the most of technology
- Demonstrating a genuine fit for the country and company

The organiser's privacy policy can be found here.